

Please keep New Jersey's strict "Do not call" law in effect. For years we have been bombarded with telemarketing calls and finally we have some relief. Phone companies in the past have given out names and numbers of unlisted customers and until these "do not call" laws, we had no way to prevent our privacy from being abused.